MASON COUNTY TURKEYS

Will Tickle the Palates of the Peace Commissioners

The Keystone Commercial Company of this city received an order from a Portsmouth (N. H.) firm for twenty-five dozen of three-monthsold bronze turkeys.

N. H. Richardson of this county supplied them, and the turkeys were shipped yesterday. packed in ice.

The letter from the firm states that the turkeys were intended for the swell dinners to be given the Japan-Russian Peace Commissioners soon to convene at Portsmouth to settle the war between Japan and Russia.

of New Orleans. Frank Bonham, steamboat man, is sick in Hospital at Louisville.

The Greenwood passed up last night for Pomeroy, and the Tacoma will pass up tonight for Government Inspectors at Pittsburgh have preferred charges against Captain Frank Gilmore, commander of the Iron Age. He is alleged to have violated navigation rules.

Heavy rains Saturday and Sunday bave caused a rise in the river sufficient for shipping. More than six million bushels of coal started South yesterday and another large shipment was made last night.

Captain Duvall W. Young, who before the war was a steamboatman on the Mississippi river, between St. Louis and New Orleans, died at Los Angeles, Cal. For over twenty years he was in the trade between Cincinnati and Bonanza, of which he was Clerk.

The following received appointments to the State College at Lexington: Messrs. J. L. Pogue, W. C. Matthews, Humphreys Taylor and Miss Edith Farrow.

The term is for four years and Mason county is entitled to one appointment each year. At present she has only one representative, hence the extra number of appointments. 5 TO 1 THE SCORE

Maysville Team Won From Georgetown Yesterday

For the first time in many years an exhibition of real ball playing was given at the East End Park yesterday afternoon in a game between the Reds of this city and a crack team from Georgetown, O.

From the time of call "Play Ball" to the finish there was not a dull moment or a real stupid play in the nine innings.

The visitors did not make a run until the eighth inning, and it was by accident and virtually a gift that they scored then. Instead of being 5 to 1 in favor of the Reds

It must not be inferred, however, that the Ohio boys are not the real thing; on the contrary, they are cracker-jacks and ball tossers

it should have been a blank for the George-

A large crowd was out to witness the game, and the fans were generous and impartial in approval of good plays made by either side.

The game was full of vim and vigor and will Portsmouth. The last boat he was on was the be the means of a still larger crowd going out to see the second game this afternoon.
